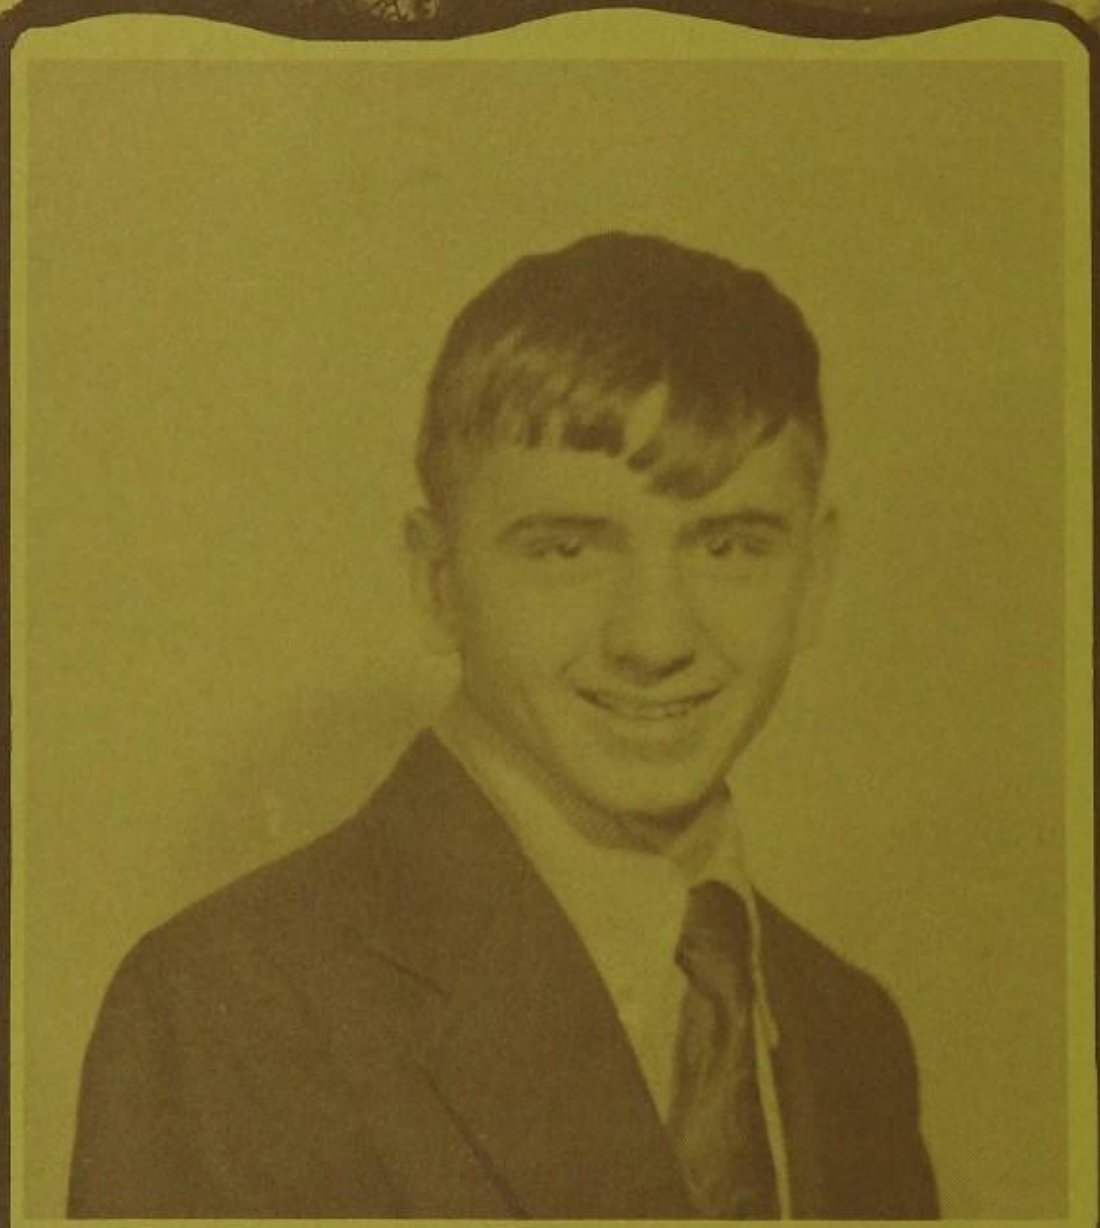
HIZKUNTZA

1973 HIALITZA
Thorp High School
Thorp, Washington



Dedication

In memory of Robert Emil Pasco.
March 6, 1956 ---- May 4, 1973.

We the annual staff of 1973 dedicate this year's annual to the memory of Robert Pasco. "Life does not count by years but by deeds"--this is so true of Bob. He was a student at Thorp all of his school years; he was President of his Junior Class; he was Boys' Social Co-Chairman of the THS Student Body; he was a hardworking and dedicated member of the basketball team; and, above all, he lived honestly, honorably, and justly. In dedicating this annual to Bob's memory we are expressing our sincere sympathy to the Pasco family. Bob's life was a lesson in humility to all of us at THS. "A little work, a little sleep, a little love, and it is all over."

Mrs. Kreitinger

Where's the little boy who used to wear the paper hat with his name on it in the first grade? I guess he wanted to make sure everyone knew him. And we are all glad that we did.

Where's the boy who would walk to the store with his friends and buy cookies to celebrate the holidays?

Where's the young man who used to play chase with his friends and get in trouble because he couldn't sit still in class? He was too full of energy and adventure to learn from textbooks. He wanted to learn from life itself.

Was it the same tall, clumsy kid who played basketball in the 8th grade and practically became an all star when he hit high school?

Yes, it was. And to those who knew him, it still is. He'll never be completely gone because he's left a memory of his true happiness with all of us.

He was a friend to everyone who knew him and he was friendly to those who didn't. I guess you could say he was everybody's friend.

He was always kind and considerate of others. His smiling face could cheer up the sadest heart. He had a free and easy, carefree kind of life because he loved life itself so much.

His family was very close. I used to see him playing basketball with his mom and younger brother. It makes me want to scream at America and tell them what love was all about because this family showed a lot of it towards each other.

Bob loved to play basketball very much and he always played a good game. He never got mad at anything without a reason.

There are so many good things that could be said about Bob but no one takes the time to say anything until it's too late.

Oh, why did they close school that day? Why is everyone crying? Even the tough guys are crying. They all just walk around like zombies. Why couldn't it be like any other normal day?

All of his class mates seem so distant and far away. The look in their eyes is like a wishful thought that keeps entering their minds. That class always worked together at everything: from history tests to getting in trouble, and Bob was one who made it all seem like fun, no matter what they did. So what's the matter with them all?

Maybe Thorp school will never again be the same, but if we look we can still see Bob walking down the halls, smiling, and laughing with his friends. He'll never really be very far away. If we listen we can hear his cheerful laughter and feel his everlasting presence. No matter what happens, he'll always be here with each of us. Nothing could ever take him away.

Christmas

The Choir
This group was small and had many problems to overcome. Each person had to know his part, he couldn't depend on the other guy because there were not enough people on each part. The high point of the year was the enjoyable day we spent at Zillah at the Small School Choir Festival. It was a long, exhausting day, but a rewarding experience singing with such a large group.

Mr. Bunch

Pop Concert

High School Girls' Ensemble
We had trouble finding a time we could all meet, but we managed inspite of this. We sang at the Kiwanis Talent Show, the Choir Festivel at Zillah, and the solo and ensemble contest at Yakima. We didn't get a high rating, but if they would have given one for improvement, it would have beam Superior.

"Grandad Steps Out", a three act farce by Felicia Metcalfe, was presented in early November. Roger Williamson portrayed Grandad and Tim Sandvig was Grandad"s old friend, "Big Jim Mahoney". Other members of the play cast were: Tammie Van de Brake, Shanee Rose, Shelly Barton, Steve Fischer, Sheryl Chandler, Dawn Pugh, Danita Barton, Barry Wheeler, Dan Leavitt, Becky Turner and Becky Sandvig.

Dale Robling was the 1971-73 Thespian Club President; Dennis Morse, the Vice-President; and Tina Dennis, Secretary-Treasurer.

During the year the Thespians enjoyed a roller skating party in Yakima and a Christmas party in the school library. Several skits were presented during the Christmas party; a roast turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served; handmade gifts were exchanged, a pinata was broken, and Christmas carols were sung.

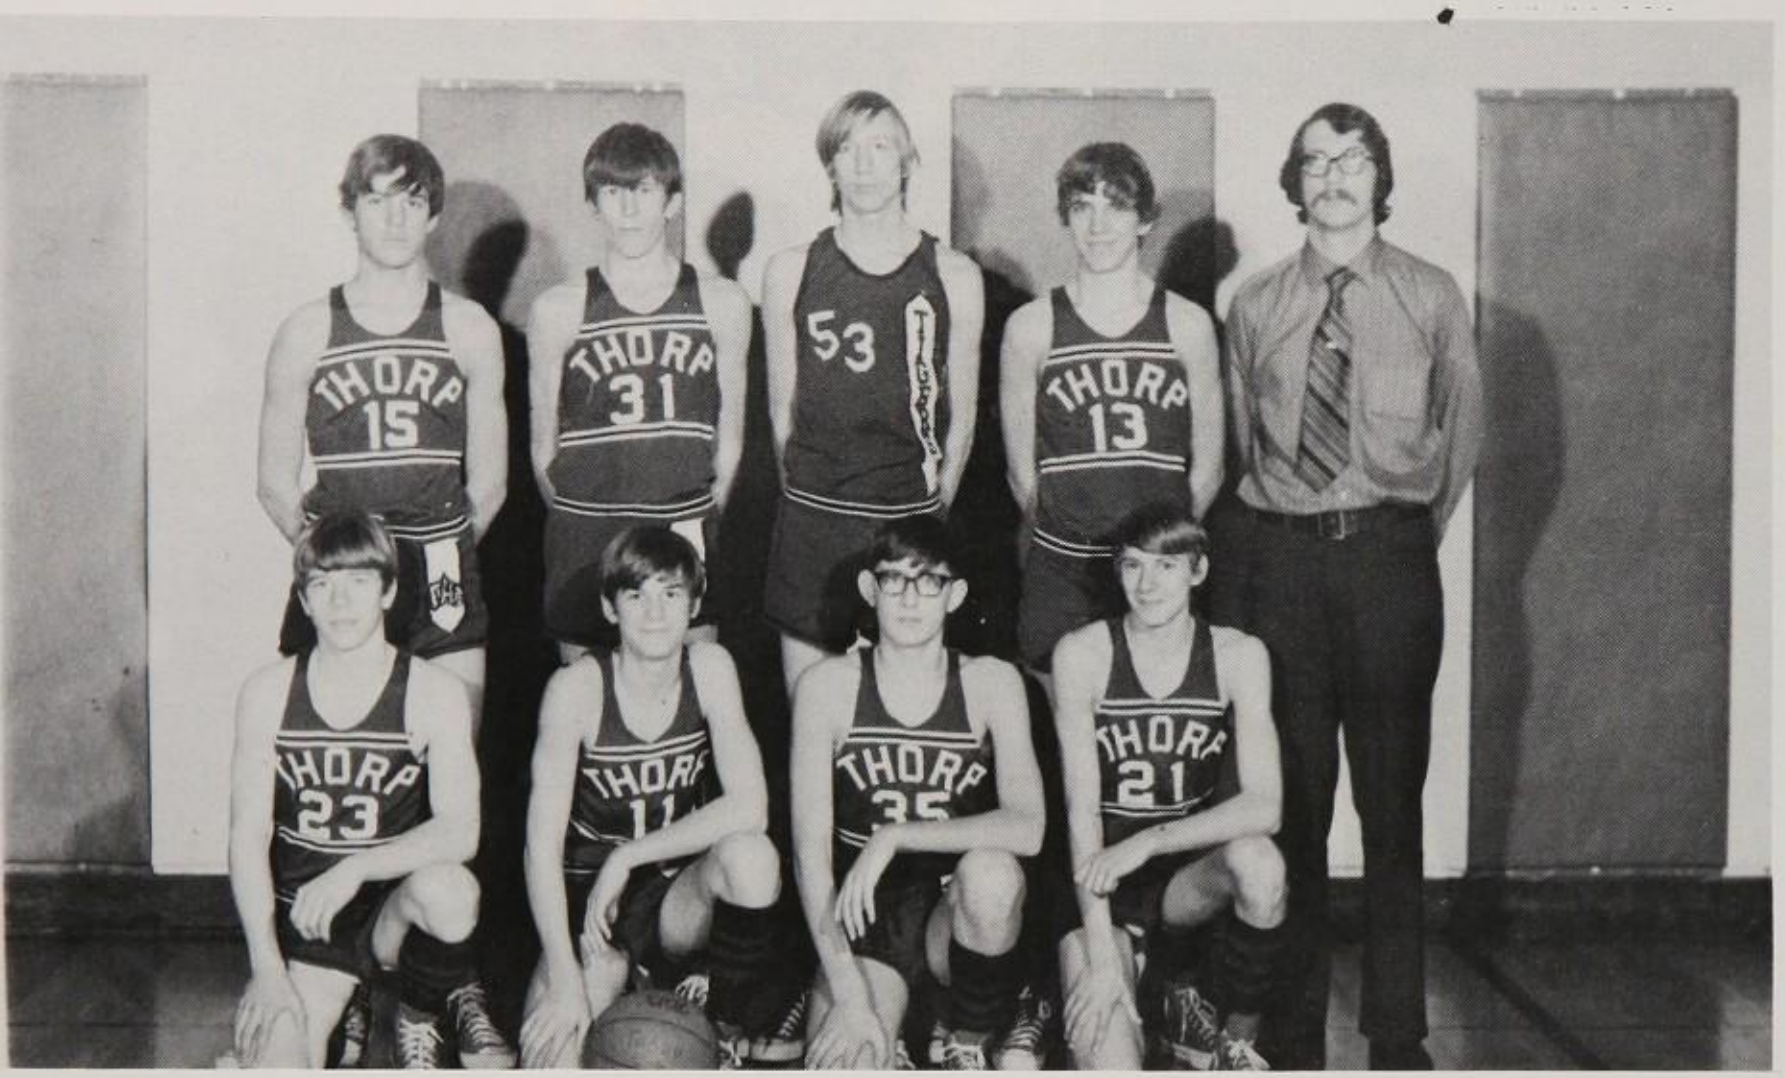
Thorp



We had a winning season by one game with out team. There was much competiton for starting spots, and there were many changes during the season. We had our ups and downs, but we were generally pleased with our performance. Larry Pasco was voted Most Improved player and Keith Chandler, Team Captain.

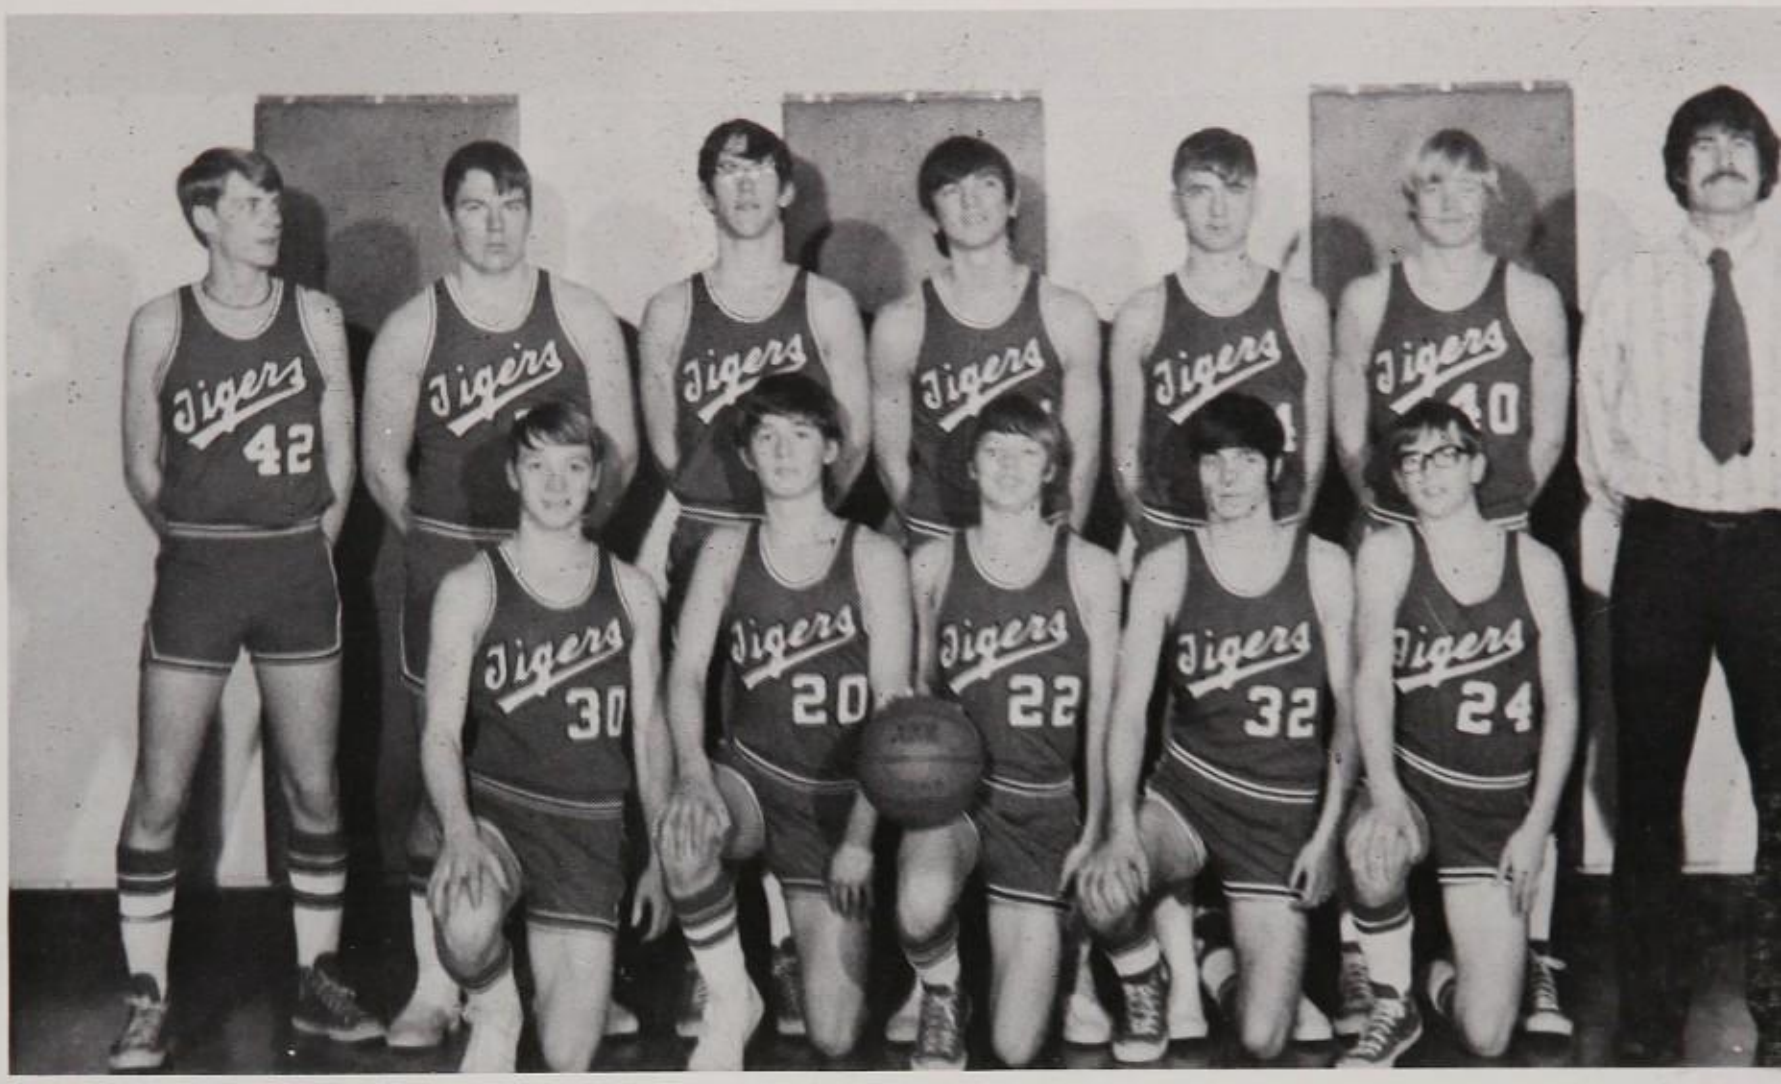
Tigers Varsity



The 1972-73 Tigers were not blessed with height but did possess speed, aggressiveness and a great competitive spirit. At a time when a lot of people had all but given up for hope a district berth, the team pulled themselves together, won some very close, crucial games; and went on to a district tournament berth before the season ended at Kamiakin High School on the second week-end of tournament action. The key to Thorp's late season success was desire coupled with great defensive dfforts the last seven games of the basketball season.
Losses due to graduation: Jim Partlow, Dan Liggett.

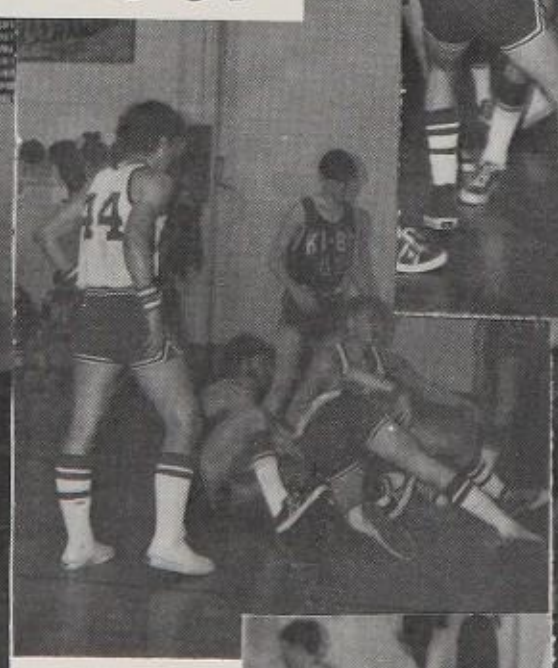
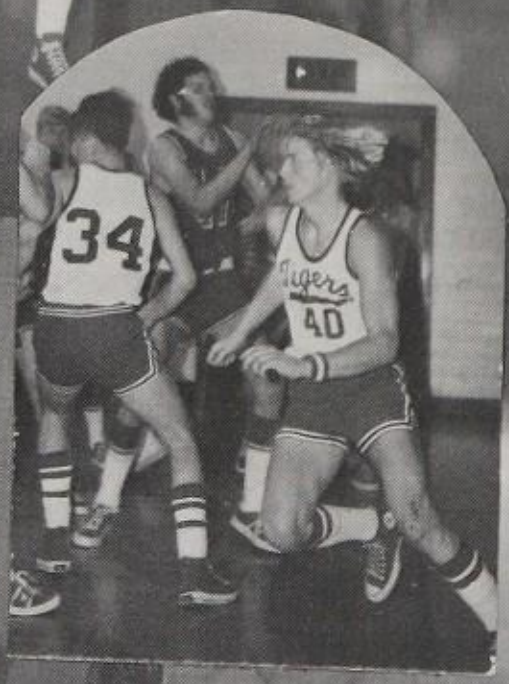
Moments to Remember





Baseball

The 1973 edition of the Thorp High School baseball team was short on experience with only two seniors on the roster. The team still had an outstanding year, winning eleven and losing eleven during a 22 game schedule. Desire and dedication on the part of the whole team truned a rebuilding year into one of the most successful seasons Thorp has experienced in several years.
